Modern Slavery – Adult Safeguarding referral form

Under the Modern Slavery Act 2015, the Council is required to ensure that any individuals suspected as being a victim of modern slavery are referred to the National Crime Agency through the National Referral Mechanism or a duty to refer.

Forms of modern slavery covered by the 2015 Act include: child trafficking, forced labour/debt bondage, forced labour, sexual exploitation, criminal exploitation and domestic servitude. A more detailed description of these is available https://www.gov.uk/government/collections/modern-slavery

If you are concerned that an individual is a victim of modern day slavery, please fill in the attached form to the best of your knowledge and send it to Adult Safeguarding, who are acting as lead on modern slavery for Buckinghamshire County Council safeguardingadults@buckscc.gov.uk

Adult Safeguarding will then complete a duty to notify form, and send it to both the Home Office and Nicola Bell, RAHAB Project Manager, who is leading on Modern Slavery in Buckinghamshire.

If you have any concerns that the individual is under 18, please immediately refer the case to the Children's Social Care

If you have any concerns surrounding an individual, or need assistance or advice, please contact Safeguarding Adults

More information on modern slavery, what to look for and how to report it is available https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/how-to-report-modern-slavery.

The government has also issued promotional material and industry factsheets for use in public locations. The duty to notify form is available here:
